

BEHAVIORS THAT MAY BE HARASSMENT...

- ▶ Unwanted hugging, kissing, grabbing, rubbing or touching
- ▶ Standing too close or stopping someone from moving
- ▶ Teasing or saying disgusting rumors and mean jokes about others or making comments about other's bodies

- ▶ Writing hurtful notes, graffiti, electronic messages
- ▶ Showing or sending nasty pictures, posters, cartoons, or drawings that make others feel uncomfortable
- ▶ Making rude body movements that embarrass people
- ▶ Ignoring someone on purpose

DON'T BULLY. IT'S WRONG!

- ▶ Don't bother or touch other kids if they don't want you to. "I was only playing" is not a good reason.
- ▶ Don't tease or make fun of other students.
- ▶ Don't join in when someone teases or bullies other kids.
- ▶ Respect and be nice to everyone. Think about the words you use.

HOW CAN YOU STOP HARASSMENT?

- ▶ If others are bullying or harassing you, tell them to stop.
- ▶ If a friend tells you someone is bothering them, try to help them tell someone.
- ▶ If bullies don't stop bothering you or a friend, tell an adult you trust.

WHO CAN HELP IF SOMEONE IS BOTHERING YOU?

- ▶ Parents, teachers, principals, complaint managers or other trusted adults can help you.
- ▶ Once your school knows about your concerns, they will stop the harassment and keep you safe.

WHAT COULD HAPPEN TO OTHERS WHO BULLY OR HARASS YOU?

- ▶ A warning
- ▶ A parent conference about their behavior
- ▶ Other consequences or discipline

STUDENTS, DON'T LET OTHERS BULLY OR HARASS YOU!
